

UACT – United Action Connecticut

381 Main Street
Middletown, CT 06547
(860) 882-3849

Job Posting

Community Organizer

United Action Connecticut (UACT), is seeking an experienced community organizer. UACT is a growing organization of congregations and other community-based institutions affiliated with the Gamaliel Foundation.

Candidates should send a letter of introduction and resume to: Jay Klemundt, UACT, 381 Main St., Middletown, CT 06547, or by email to: jayklemundt@yahoo.com

Candidates must have a deep desire to address social justice issues, and have some experience in working with diverse individuals and groups. Organizers recruit and develop a congregational base, identify and engage leaders and organize people and money to sustain the organization. A proven track record of success is required.

The organizer will work at a local, regional and state level on multiple issues including Education, Tax Equity, Civil Rights for Immigrants, and access to Health Care.

Qualities sought: experience with political processes; capacity to train and develop leaders; strong communication skills; ability to work with diverse groups; financial, fundraising and organizational management skills; ability to speak, train, translate and write Spanish is highly desired.

Desirable candidates should have experience in Community Organizing.

Salary and benefits are negotiable, based on demonstrated professional experience and expertise. Please send salary history with your resume and letter of introduction.