

“While I know myself as a creation of God, I am also obligated to realize and remember that everyone else and everything else are also God’s creation.”

-Maya Angelou

Praying... Witnessing... Gathering for...

Equitable Healthcare Reform

As people of faith, we recognize the moral imperative of working for a health care future that includes everyone and works well for all of us. Across traditions, we unite hands and hearts, believing together we can bring to pass a more just society in which we all have access to affordable and quality care.

To demonstrate our support for healthcare reform now, join us for:

What: An Interfaith Service of Witness and Prayer

When: 4 p.m. – 8 p.m. Wednesday, June 24, 2009

Where: Washington, D.C. (Freedom Plaza)

Please bring:

- * Banners that represent your congregation or religious organization
- * As many people as possible
- * Your prayers for equitable healthcare reform.

Sponsors include:

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| Faithful Reform in Healthcare  | Catholics United  |
| The Southern Christian Leadership Conference                           | The Greater NY Labor-Religion Coalition                 |
| Interfaith Worker Justice  | Presbyterian Senior Services                            |
| The United Church of Christ  | The Hindu Temple Society of North America, Flushing, NY |
| The General Board of Church and Society of the United Methodist Church | Network – A National Catholic Social Justice Lobby      |
| The Samuel DeWitt Proctor Conference, Inc.                             | The Interfaith Center of New York                       |
| Tikkun Magazine  | RESULTS Faith in Action Project                         |
| Home Mission Board, National Baptist Convention                        | The Network of Spiritual Progressives                   |
| The Gamaliel Foundation  | Catholics in Alliance for the Common Good               |
| Association for Clinical Pastoral Education                            |   |

“...the crushing cost of healthcare...causes a bankruptcy in America every 30 seconds...”

-- President Barack Obama, State of the Union, 2009

